

The Guild of St. Joseph Mission Statement

The Guild of St. Joseph Catholic Church, as a women's organization in St. Joseph's Parish-Libertyville, provides many social, spiritual and service opportunities for its members. It will unite the women of the parish in a community of service and offer each member the opportunity to use her individual talents. The Guild of St. Joseph will assist the pastor in ministering to family, church, social and community life.

The Guild is divided into groups called Circles. The purpose of Circles is to provide the opportunity for women to work in smaller groups toward common goals.
